PRAYING MEETING SERVING CELEBRATING

Mondays - Give thanks and pray for our global engagement

Elizabeth Newport as she supervises Bible translators in hard to reach areas

For protection for our partners in Yei (South Sudan) where there has been serious fighting in the past few weeks

St Nicholas, Kalerwe, in Kampala: pray for Bishop Hannington (Assistant Bishop of Kampala) awaiting treatment for bone marrow cancer; pray for Racheal Mutesi and a project to help girls stay in secondary education

Diocese of Muhabura (Uganda): pray for Bishop Cranmer and Mama Hope; pray for plans to visit here later this year

The work of Church Mission Society and Tearfund

Katy Birmingham with YWAM and based in France

Titus Camfield—as he prepares for travelling to Zambia with Tearfund next month

India Taylor on her gap year working with a community of foster families in South Africa

Give thanks and pray for the work of the diocese and deanery:

Our bishops: Tim and David and their families

Work of the Bishop's Council and Diocesan Synod (Alison Coulter, Lay Chair)

Reaching out to student communities in the diocese and planting new churches

Chris Kipling as he ministers at Ringwood and is used by the diocese in training worship leaders; Brian Wakelin as Secretary of Diocesan World Mission Strategy Group

The ministry of the cathedral, for the volunteer chaplains available each day to all who enter the building and the work of Close pastors

For Karen Kousseff (Area Dean), Ruth Guy (Lay Chair) and all on Deanery Synod

For the deanery churches working together—particularly in ministry to schools through the Deanery Schools Team and those parishes using the Bible Society's Open the Book material

For our working with the other churches in our cluster: St Luke's and St Mark's, St Barnabas—for Ed Dines, Mike Gardner. For Marianne Foster as she ministers in St Mark's as part of her ordination training.

This month pray for ministry in the northern cluster of parishes:

- Headbourne Worthy, Kings Worthy, Paul Bradish, Lis Chase
- Upper Dever Vacant
- Lower Dever Mark Bailey

Give thanks and pray for those in training for future ministry:

Thea Smith, Anna Creedon, Jemima Lewis, Clare Carson, Ben Coulter and Marianne Foster (our ordinands); Sue Collinson and Sara-Jane Roope as they train to become licensed lay ministers and Chloe Sheppard with Church Army

For Debbi Chua directing WTC Hub here and the student body

For Winchester School of Mission in training lay people, ordinands and clergy

Jess Ross and Jack Percey, our interns this year

Ewen Greenlees on the South West Youth Ministry course based at Stoke Gifford church in Bristol

Jesse and Agi Rowe and family as they train at All Nations College for future service in East Asia

For all seeking to discern where God is calling them to serve in church, in the home, in the workplace and in retirement

Give thanks and pray for our local engagement as a church:

Our work with other churches through Churches Together in Winchester

For chaplaincy to the day-time and night-time economies through the City Centre Chaplaincy and Street Pastors

For all from Christ Church involved in prison ministry, for David Hinks and Cliff McClelland (chaplains) and all the prison staff and residents

The work of the Trinity Centre, Night Shelter, Basics Bank and Debt Counselling Team

For Prospects, Breast Cancer Support, Peri-natal Classes, and the Mental Health Unit who make regular use of the Church Centre in their work

For those involved in Winchester Bereavement Support Group and those they help

Ministry among staff and students at Peter Symonds (Peter Seal, the chaplain), Winchester University (Terry Biddington, Dean of Chapel, and Chris Day, Chaplain) and Southampton University School of Art (Katie Lawrence, chaplaincy work)

Work of Friends International among international students

For those involved in the Gideons as they distribute Bibles in places churches may find hard to reach

For the work of the hospital and Christine Whitehead the chaplain.

For the interaction of the church locally with the city and county councils and central government—for Steve Brine our MP

Westacre Nursing Home—for monthly visits to take communion

Where is God calling you to serve?

Give thanks and pray for our individual engagement:

For the people you regularly meet at your places of work, leisure and when shopping, to be salt and light to them

For those around where you live

For individuals and mission agencies you support as a household

More information on items in the prayer diary (and how to get involved) can be found at Connection Point in the concourse; by contacting the church office (01962 854454 /office@ccwinch.org.uk) or the church website www.ccwinch.org.uk.

Thursdays—Give thanks and pray for our life together

For growth in our personal and corporate spirituality, discipleship and pastoral care as we meet in small groups

Those struggling in their marriages or with their singleness

Those whose family situations have changed over the past year—marriage, birth, bereavement, retirement, redundancy; and those struggling to support each other across generations

Work of SAGES among those of an older generation

All who attend, lead, encourage and teach week by week in:

Crèche, Scramblers, Climbers, Xplorers, Little Oasis, Baby Oasis, Toddlers, Bumps and Babies, XPC, Pathfinders and Download

For Messy Church and Messy Dads

For the ministry of Oasis among women and for ministry among men

Where is God calling you to serve?

For our personal and corporate response to the challenge to pray, meet together, serve and celebrate

Fridays—Give thanks and pray for the leadership team at Christ Church:

Licensed Lay Ministers: Mike Carson, Keith Whale (ministering in Otterbourne), Adrian Nance (ministering in Eastleigh)

Church Wardens, Treasurer and Secretary: Judith Adams, James Kendall, Tricia Meads and Louisa Stone

PCC and the new task groups focusing on specific areas of praying, meeting, serving and celebrating

For all involved in leading worship, preaching and teaching across all age groups

For growth in personal discipleship for all in leadership

For Bishop Tim, Archdeacon Richard, the Patrons and wardens as they progress the vacancy

Saturdays—Preparing for Sunday:

For all who will be leading, teaching and preaching on Sunday

For our own preparation in coming to worship
